

Ladies View, Model Most Recent Jewelry Fashions at Home Party

By SONNIE TOMCHAK
FR 6662

It's a well known fact that women just love jewelry and so what could be more appropriate than a jewelry party? That's just what took place last Thursday night at the Green Meadows home occupied by Marilyn Forrester. The fashion show director was Janet Robinson and the girls invited to see and model the lovely jewelry were Agnes Rogers, Jeanne Pope, Ruth Miller, Dorothy Frey, Jean Bowman, Doris Udy, Helen Rahn, Ruth Manchester, Merla Wilson, and Dorothy Sallie.

A surprise shower for Grace Walker, of 4832 Highgrove Ave., was held at the home of Mrs. Richard Blackley in Westwood. Guests included Messrs. and Mrs. James Dias, Jack Gummerus, Bruno Forsher, Wesley Cooks, Jr., and George Walker. A buffet dinner was served and the guest of honor was presented with a play pen.

The James Sullivans, of 4539 Highgrove Ave., had some neighbors in last weekend for an evening of charades and talk. Enjoying the fun were the Van Sommers, the Mel Wells and the David Harneys.

Recent guests of the Albert V. Wilsons, of 4527 Green Meadows Ave., were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene J. Erner and daughter Pamela. The Ernerts are from Memphis, Tenn., where Eugene is an instructor for the navy with a rating of aviation electronics technician 1st class. He is Wilson's brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Donal W. Gould, of 4633 Highgrove Ave., are enjoying the company of Donal's sister, Miss Helen Gould. She arrived on Sept. 19 and leaves today for her home in Omaha, Neb., where she works as a dietician at the Veterans Hospital located there.

Sue and Van Sommer, of 4539 Green Meadows Ave., had a barbecue party in their newly constructed patio recently. The occasion was actually in the nature of an appreciation dinner for Jack and Jeanette Rice and Lou and Pat William, Jack and Lou helped Van put in the patio. In return Van served them with delicious steaks as the first meal cooked at the barbecue pit. After dinner the couples had fun playing charades.

Janet Smith, of Green Meadows Ave., held a bridge club meeting at her home last Tuesday night. The players were Janice Lee, Janet Robinson, Barbara O'Leary, Peggy King, Jean Murphy, Jeanne Pope and Joann Doudna. Janet served the girls toasted ham and cheese sandwiches and coffee. We heard that several husbands grumbled slightly when the girls arrived home close to 2 a.m. from the party. After all, folks, you can't talk and play bridge too. It takes time to do both.

Jeanne Asher, 4608 Pacific Coast Highway, returned on Thursday from a short trip to Oceanside where she visited with her parents.

A surprise stork shower for Mrs. Ruth Miller was held at the home of Mrs. Willoughby Bowman, at 4526 Pacific Coast Highway on Wednesday, Sept. 22. Guests were Janet Robinson, Agnes Rogers, Merla Wilson, Marilyn Forrester, Dorothy Frey, Helen Hackbush, Doris Udy, and Margaret Darnell, all of Ellinwood, and Becky Slone and Grace Morley of Long Beach. The clever decorations included a cake with a stork scene, a cradle containing pink and blue flowers, and large crepe paper booties. All decorations carried out the color theme of pink, blue and white. With the cake the ladies were served candy, nuts and coffee. Ruth was quite surprised by the whole affair and got many lovely gifts. During the evening the girls played games and winners were Merla Wilson with a first prize, Betty Slone who got a booby prize and Marilyn Forrester who captured both a first and a booby prize.

Who would have guessed that Jeanne Pope was practical as she was pretty? Jean and Frank are celebrating their fourth wedding anniversary this month and had planned to go on a short trip to the Valley or maybe Las Vegas. Jeanne, however, decided that a trip would soon be only a pleasant memory while drapes for the living room would be a permanent remembrance, so that is what she chose for an anniversary present.

The Pops entertained Frank's half-sister at dinner last week. Phyllis Pope, who is 18, arrived here recently from the east coast. Frank and Phyllis had a lot of talking to do because they haven't seen each other for almost nine years.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Rogers, of Green Meadows Ave., held a surprise birthday party on Saturday night for Roland's father, Glenn Rogers. Twelve friends were invited to enjoy the buffet dinner and honor the senior Mr. Rogers.

Jean and Marvin Anderson and son Craig, of Green Meadows Ave., return today from a week's trip which took them to Mt. Lassen, Big Sur, and Monterey.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ashley, of 4515 Green Meadows Ave., are enjoying the company of their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. James Jex. The couple arrived several weeks ago for an indefinite stay.

Linda Bishop, of 4708 Green Meadows Ave., celebrated her 11th birthday Saturday with a party held in Torrance Park. Her guests were Julio Dunn, Stephanie and Susanne Schank, Susanne Terwilliger, Penny Powers, Pam Pennington, Charlene and Marilyn Hackbush, Yvonne Whitecotten and Donna Mitchell. The picnic lunch included hot dogs, pop, cake and ice cream.

Mrs. Bonnie Myers and son, Porky, who is two, flew to Oakland last Tuesday to visit with Porky's paternal grandparents.

Richard DeArmitt, of 5102 Pacific Coast Hwy., was a player in the football game held on Sept. 18 at El Camino College. The alumni squad of which Dick is a member, downed the present team 13 to 0. When in school Dick played under the name of Dick Contreras and is a half back on the alumni squad. After the game the players were invited to a party at the home of the alumni coach, Andy Schindler, in Hollywood Riviera.

The James Dias family, of 4632 Highgrove Ave., have a visitor in the person of their niece, Mrs. Patricia Miller. Mrs. Miller plans to stay with the Dias family while her husband, a marine, is overseas. Another visitor, Robert Herold of Pittsburgh, Penn., left on Tuesday to return home. Herold is Mrs. Dias' brother.

On Thursday, Sept. 23, the Woman's Auxiliary of the Christ Episcopal Church, Redondo Beach, held a hat fashion show and luncheon and several carloads of Ellinwood ladies attended. Mrs. John Shidler, who is Rosemary De Camp, of movie fame, was the commentator on the lovely hats which were shown. Also on the program were Dorothy Tunis, of the Hampton Players, who gave a dialogue, and Joan George, of the South Bay Opera Company, who sang three numbers. Accompanying Miss George at the piano was Mrs. Dorothy Tully, the wife of the director of the South Bay Opera Company. The attractively served luncheon consisted of turkey salad, potato chips, rolls, relishes, coffee and a lemon confection dessert. Attending the luncheon from Ellinwood were Mrs. Charles

Reese Roaders Hold Barbecues, Wiener Roasts, Swim Parties

Quite a sociable crowd lives on Reese Rd. On Sept. 11, the Donald McCollums, of 4807 Reese Rd., entertained neighbors and friends with a swim party at the Riviera Country Club, followed by a barbecue at their home. Present at the swim were Messrs. and Mrs. P. Kimball, B. Caldon, P. Kolleck, and children; B. Hasenpflug, A. Poston, R. Bralwick, E. Chipperfield, J. Talbot and son, A. Aid, M. Hanson, S. Cheney, and D. Stevens. At the barbecue, the Bill Sherreffs, K. Marshalls, and R. Fitzgeralds joined them.

A farewell party, for Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Stout, formerly of 22508 Susana Ave., who have gone back to Missouri to live, was given in the patio of the offices of the United Airlines, Robert E. McDonalds, of 22502 Susana. The guests enjoyed a barbecue and then spent the evening dancing on the lawn, and playing games. Present at the event were Messrs. and Mrs. James T. West, W. Brown, R. Culigan, D. Gibson, W. Daugherty, N. Jefferies, A. Margolis, and R. Touchstone.

Mrs. Mary Clark, of 4830 Reese Rd., is vice-president of the United Stewardess Alumni in this area. Their main interest is in the Exceptional Children Foundation. This is a national organization of former stewardesses of the United Airlines, and has 20 members in this area. If you are eligible and would like to help in this worthy cause, contact Mrs. Clark, and she will give you all the necessary information.

On Saturday, Sept. 18, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Marshall, of 5006 Reese Rd., entertained with a beach party and wiener roast at Playa del Rey. Then all returned to the Kimball home and played ping-pong. Present were the P. Kimballs, R. Bralwick, P. Kolleck, D. McCollums, Chrip and Steve.

Invited, but unable to attend were the Phil Sherreffs, of 6019 Reese Rd., who became the proud parents of a 7 lb., 3 oz. baby girl, Lorri Lynn, at San Pedro Hospital on Sept. 19. Also awaiting the new baby are her new brothers, Garth and Phil Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. D. McCann and son Larry, of 22702 Linda Dr. attended the wedding of Mr. McCann's cousin, Miss Dora Harland, who is a nurse at San Pedro Hospital, and Hospital Man Second Class, Robert Smith at St. Peter's Episcopal Church, in San Pedro on Saturday, Sept. 18. After the wedding there was a large reception. Robert is planning to continue his studies in medicine. Donna was thrilled when Robert's shipmates aboard the U. S. destroyer Tausig, chose her queen of their ship. On Sept. 25 Donna's brother will be married.

The Dean McCanns, of 22702 Linda Dr., have returned from Hackbush, who is courtesy chairman of the Woman's Auxiliary; Mrs. A. V. Wilson, Mrs. E. J. Erner, Mrs. Joseph Frey, Mrs. Willoughby Bowman, Mrs. W. F. Forrester, Mrs. Roland Rogers, and Mrs. Orville Robinson.

The Jack C. Clayton family returned last week from a five day stay at Crestline. Accompanying them on the trip were Mr. and Mrs. Douglas M. Jarvis, of Hollywood Riviera, with their three children. The Claytons boast two youngsters which totaled five children under 5 years of age. The group enjoyed swimming in Lake Gregory and while they were privileged to witness a preview of the coming Christmas festival to be presented in December. The children especially enjoyed seeing the live reindeer which were brought in. On a visit to Arrowhead the vacationers participated in water skiing, and the children got to play with the ducks abounding in that area.

This group is having a swim party on Saturday evening, Sept. 25, at the Riviera Swim School, for members and families.

We are sorry to hear that the Bernard Meiers, of 22420 Shadycroft Ave., have moved to Hollywood Riviera. Our best wishes for lots of luck go with them.

We are glad to report that Mr. C. A. Mewborn, of 5321 Reese Rd., is recovering from his recent illness, and expects to be up and around soon.

There is great rejoicing at the home of the H. E. Millers, 22815 Shadycroft Ave., at the arrival Tuesday, Sept. 21, at Methodist Hospital in Los Angeles of Steven Wallace, who weighed in at 7 lbs. half ounce. Big sister Susan Jane and brother, Christopher Harold, can hardly wait to welcome the baby home. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Anderson of Long Beach.

A neighborhood bridge club of Reese Rd. held a stork shower in honor of Mrs. C. A. Mewborn, of 5321 Reese Rd. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Buxton, of 5352 Reese Rd. Saturday evening, Sept. 18. There were 30 neighbors and friends present. The table was beautifully decorated with flowers and storks, a large pink umbrella doors. After the many lovely gifts were opened and admired, fancy sandwiches, nuts, coffee and punch was enjoyed by all.

A baby girl has come to brighten the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Baggett, of 5311 Reese Rd. She was born at San Pedro Hospital Aug. 11, and weighed 7 lbs., 12 oz. The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. William Morris, of Reese Rd., and the paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. A. Baggett of Haverhill, Mass. The proud great grandfather is Mr. D. Sweeney of Reese Rd. The baby was christened Aug. 22 at St. James Church, in Redondo. The god-parents were Betty and William Morris Jr. They called the new arrival, Noreen Ellen.
